The International Festival is a collaborative effort between the Bulloch County Board of Education, the Statesboro-Bulloch Parks and Recreation, Georgia Southern University, the City of Statesboro, the Bulloch County Board of Commissioners, the Statesboro-Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce, and the Statesboro Convention and Visitors Bureau.

What's Happening?

•GLOBAL VILLAGE

Middle & high school students from Bulloch, Emanuel, and Screven counties will team with students from the GSU Global Ambassador Program to create educational booths about 7 countries. Factual information, arts & crafts, and other educational activities will be available at each country's booth. Come see what the students have created.

•INTERNATIONAL BAZAAR

Purchase unique items from Haiti, Ghana, China, Taiwan, Korea, Trinidad, and the Philippines.

•INTERNATIONAL CULINARY DELIGHTS

Sample international food from various countries such as the Caribbean, Argentina, Philippines, Japan, Greece, Italy, and Mexico!

•WORLD STAGE

Cultural entertainment will be performed on the World Stage including music, dance and more! See performance schedule for details!

•IT'S A SMALL WORLD

Children are invited to make crafts and play games from various countries.
